

Vitoon Chinswangwatanakul, M.D., Ph.D.

Current Position Chief of Division general of surgery
Minimally Invasive Surgery Unit,
Division of General Surgery, Department of Surgery,
Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University,
Bangkok, Thailand

Academic Expertise

Dr Vitoon Chinswangwatanakul is currently a Chief of the Division of General Surgery, Department of Surgery, Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University, Bangkok, Thailand. After M.D. and Thai Board of Surgery from Siriraj Hospital, he worked as an honorary registrar at the Hammersmith Hospital, London, UK. In 1999, he received Ph.D. from the Imperial College. He is interested in minimally invasive and robotic surgery, hernia, surgical infection, nutrition and carcinogenesis of colorectal cancer. He is an active member of the American Association for Cancer Research (AACR). He is also Assistant Dean of Research Affair and Head of Siriraj Cancer Center. In 2016, he became the international member of Japan Society for Endoscopic Surgery (JSES). He is the Immediate Past President of Thai Hernia Society. Currently, he is the President of the Laparoscopic and Endoscopic Surgeons of Thailand (LEST) and Secretary General of the Royal College of Surgeons of Thailand.

Education

1999 Ph.D. in Surgery, Department of Surgery,
Hammersmith Hospital, Imperial College School of Medicine, University of London, U.K.

- 1995 MSc. in Surgical Science, Department of Surgery, Hammersmith Hospital, Royal Postgraduate Medical School, University of London, U.K.
- 1992 Thai Board of Surgery The Medical Council of Thailand.
- 1990 Grad.Dip. in Clin.Sci., Mahidol University, Bangkok, Thailand.
- 1986 M.D., Mahidol University, Bangkok, Thailand.
- 1980 High School Suankularb College, Bangkok, Thailand.